H. Molly,

4-26-07

I have been thinking about you a lot this week, and how proud I am of the person you have become! You are so driven and committed to doing well in school and working. I'm also so impressed with your determination to do well in college and working.

I know you don't always live the way you don't! I've been the happiest Dad in the world since the day you were born! I just want you to know how much I love you and that I've been there for you... No matter what! Please know that I am always there for you... No matter what! I love you so very much and I smile a lot.

Being a teenager is the hardest time of your life. You are doing a great job and don't ever stop listening to that "little voice inside" that will always tell you what to do.

I smile a lot. I love you so very much and please know that I am always there for you... No matter what! Thanks for being my precious little girl. Dad
